Arrive at National park at around 10am	Mt. Seorak National Park In 1965, the Seorak Mountain park was designated as a Natural Monument preservation area. Afterwards in December 1973, it was designated as a park preservation area, and in August 1982, as a Biosphere Preservation District by UNESCO.

	Gwongeumseong It is located on the steep Dol Mountain of Mt. Seoraksan Sogongwon area. It is believed to have been built by the 23rd King of the Goryeo Period (918~1392), Gojong (1213~1259 reign). It is also called Gwon-Kim Castle, as there is a legend that two generals named Gwon and Kim built the castle to avoid war. Shinheung Temple Shinheungsa is a temple built by Jajangyulsa (590~658), who liked to travel to famous mountains all over peninsular. This temple had been destroyed historically by Japanese invasions and re-built afterwards. Daepo Port & fish market Situated in the south part of Sokcho, Daepo port and fish market hugs many raw fish restaurants and dried fish shops. This bustling port has become one of the most popular tourist spot for those seeking the freshest raw fish restaurants and live fish market..This will bring you an interesting experience.
At around 6pm	Back to Seoul and Drop-off at your hotel
